Communication Effectiveness – Optimizing Performance for Leaders in Construction

Keynote Speaker:

Gus Murby is an Executive Partner and co-founder of Lexington Leadership Partners. For over 25 years, Gus has worked with clients to develop their leadership and management skills, and help them apply those skills to improve their organization's performance. He has deep experience working with technical organizations, as well as professional service organizations, helping them carry out projects more effectively; improve the effectiveness of their teams; accelerate organizational change; and improve work processes.

Gus has developed thousands of leaders and project managers from leading worldwide organizations, including ALCOA

Automotive, ALSTOM, AT&T, Bayer Material Science, Draper Labs, Conti, Digital Equipment, Fidelity, GE, Heidrick & Struggles, Home Depot, National Starch & Chemical, Ohmeda, Pfizer, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Raytheon, Rockwell Collins, Schering Plough, State Street Bank, Stiefel Laboratories, and the U.S. Navy. He is also associated with the Duke Corporate Education Global Network as an Executive Coach and with Northeastern University as an Adjunct Executive Professor.

Gus holds a B.S. degree from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, and a Masters in Public Policy degree from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. He is a Corporate Learning Expert for People Performance, Culture, and Organization Effectiveness at Northeastern's D'Amore McKim School of Business.
